

FISCAL NOTE

HB 2485 – SB 2604

January 30, 2008

SUMMARY OF BILL: Requires handgun carry permit records be kept confidential unless permit holders expressly authorize the release of such information.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Increase State Expenditures – $7,000 / One-Time

Increase Local Gov't. Expenditures – Not Significant

Assumptions:

- This legislation will not limit access to permit records by law enforcement agencies, courts, or other governmental agencies.
- This legislation does not apply to handgun carry permit applications.
- According to the Comptroller, this bill will not have a significant impact on local government expenditures.
- According to the Department of Safety, the department would have to make program changes in order to capture a permit holder's express consent for release of information. This one-time increase of state expenditures is estimated to be $7,000.
